In the spirit of the circle, ANDPVA has reseeded itself back within its community driven archetype. We celebrate this beginning with our...Theme: "In The Circle of Giving Back", we look at how the cycle and circle of life regenerates, as a fall season feeds into spring, going through a winter, and every year the rings inside a tree enlarge feeding from its leaves of a past season, to how a community invests into itself. Giving back becomes the connection to the enlargement of the circle and so showing strength through giving negates the weakness of not. Growth through connection becomes an absolute with the power of giving back and the circle continues to grow bigger.

This exhibit of Contemporary and Traditional cross-disciplined Visual Art and Fine Craft Pieces showcase the vitality and range of scope of First Nations, Metis and Inuit artists.
